Dedication

No one could be more capable of carrying on all the routine office work than our own secretary to the principal, Pauline Moore. To Mrs. Moore, who always has a ready smile and a helpful word, the class of 1952 sincerely dedicates this annual.

"OUR MISS BROOKS"

Presented by the Seniors on November 8 and 9

seniors

SEPTEMBER 1948—School opened . . . 60-odd confused freshmen reported for induction . . . officers: Johnson, Lord High Executioner; Bradshaw, Lord Low Executioner; Bowen, Secretary-General; Rozhon, Chancellor of the Exchequer . . . received a good boost from sponsors, Miss Bieber and Mr. Kent . . .

NOVEMBER—sold magazines to raise money . . .

MAY 1949—no longer freshmen . . .

SEPTEMBER 1949—another year, another group of officers . . . Hughes, Clausen, Hamling, Rush . . . Mrs. Holmes, replacing Miss Bieber, joined Mr. Kent as our permanent sponsors . . .

DECEMBER—got our class rings—now to go steady!!!

APRIL 1950—chose class motto—"Take the world as it is, but leave it better" . . . class sweaters arrived—Dark Green and White . . . selected Red Rose as class flower . . .

MAY—two down, two to go . . .

SEPTEMBER 1950—Prom year . . . elected Bradshaw, Crone, Hanna, and Fischer . . .

NOVEMBER—presented "Meet Me In St. Louis" . . . huge success, of course . . . sold cokes at all basketball games to help finance Prom . . .

APRIL 1951—started work on Prom . . . chose theme, "Deep Purple" . . . hired Bob Doran's nine-piece band from Lafayette . . . painted rock wall on cardboard . . . borrowed old streetlight with purple globe from city . . .

MAY—Prom night . . . armory was beautiful . . . rock wall all around dance floor . . . flower garden in one corner . . . wishing well in another . . . streetlight peering over wall . . . a real hit . . .

JUNE—one big year left . . .

SEPTEMBER 1951—58 exalted seniors plus a few plebian underclassmen in the background . . . chose Johnson, Jackson, Hitchcock, and Fischer as officers . . .

NOVEMBER—Senior Play, "Our Miss Brooks"—stupendous!!!

JANUARY 1950—passed government!!!

FEBRUARY—some took scholarship tests . . . others taken by scholarship tests . . .

MAY—Commencement . . . many cheers . . . also fears . . . a few tears . . .
